

AKRADINBOSOM-ODWIRA

Abosom (deities) of the 7-day week and Major Body Systems

Daily purificatory ritual - 6-week online courses

The AKRADINBOSOM are the Akan Abosom (Deities) animating the solar, lunar and planetary bodies which govern the seven-day week. These eleven Abosom govern all natural cycles on Asaase (Earth) and the eleven major body systems within Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnit (African~Black) people.

There are odwira (purificatory) ritual practices connected to each one of the days of the week aligned with the male and female Abosom of the day. Through this process we maintain physical, emotional, mental and spiritual balance within ourselves that we may function in the world in a balanced fashion. This includes susuw (meditation), mpaeyi (ritual prayer), adebisa (divination) and more. In our six-week online courses Odwirafo examines each of these Abosom and their related ritual practice, body system, cosmology and more based upon his Akradinbosom book-series.
