Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu. Akwamu Nation in North America, welcomes the Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African~Black) community to our third annual ODWIRAMAN AFAHYE. Our focus is Amanne: Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African~Black) Nationism - Purification of Nationalism.
ODWIRAMAN (oh-jee'-rah mah'-een) is defined in the language of ancient Khanit and Kamit (Nubia and Egypt) as the pure, purified (dwira) nation (man) in the west (man) – the land of the setting Sun.

Proper vocalizations of these terms can be found in the Twi language of the Akan people of Ghana and Ivory Coast. Akan people originated in ancient Khanit (Nubia) thousands of years ago, eventually migrating to the western region of Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa). As Akan people migrated, we carried our Ancestral language and culture with us. The same is true of other Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) ethnic groups in West, Central and South Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa). We thus find that the term dwira (jee'-rah) in Twi means ‘to purify’, ‘to cleanse’. The noun version of the term odwira means ‘purification’. It also means ‘a celebration of purification’. Many Akan people celebrate the New Year during harvest time and this celebration of purification of the land and people is called Odwira. The definition of this term in Akan comports with the definition found in our ancient Ancestral language of Khanit and Kamit:

The term man or manu means a city, place, region, nation. The term man or manu also defines the West, the land of the setting Aten (Sun) in the language of Khanit and Kamit:
We find that in the Twi language of the Akan the term oman or man (mah‘een) means a city, town, nation, a government, a people. The related term amannone (aman-none) means a country abroad. We thus have in Twi the same two meanings and their vocalizations derived from our Ancestral language of Khanit and Kamit referencing a nation of people abroad – outside of Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa).

Odwiraman is our designation for Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans-Black People) who are descendants, genetically and spiritually, of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans-Black People) who were forced into the western hemisphere as a result of the Mmusuo Kese - the Great Perversity/Enslavement era.

Our Aakhutu and Aakhu, our Spiritually Cultivated Ancestresses and Ancestors, purified themselves through adherence to NANASOM and AMAMMERE, our Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral Religion and Culture, and were thus able to free themselves from enslavement. They waged war incessantly against the whites and their offspring, our absolute enemies, and forced the end of enslavement in the western hemisphere including North, Central and South Amaruka (america) and the Caribbean.

Odwiraman, the purified nation of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans-Black People) in the west, are a unique collective of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) within the larger community of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) worldwide, because of our shared experiences and blending of blood-circles spiri-genetically. We have the capacity and responsibility today to complete the process of Nationbuilding/Restoration begun by our Aakhu/Aakhutu (Spiritually Cultivated Ancestresses and Ancestors) - the attainment of our complete independence as a self-governing nation, on our own territory and secure in the absolute defense of our sovereignty. This capacity is founded upon our realigning ourselves, purifying ourselves, through adherence to our Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit Ancestral Religion and Culture. It is in our souls and blood. This is our transcarnational inheritance as Afuakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans-Black People) in the west, the purified nation, Odwiraman.

The medutu (hieroglyphs) comprising the name Odwiraman are manifest in their living symbols connected to the west:

The okore (eagle) is a sacred akyeneboa or animal totem, for Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in the western hemisphere. The okore is flying over the waters of Bosom Opo and Epo Abenaa, the Male and Female Abosom (Deities) governing the ocean called the ‘atlantic’. This body of water is sacred to Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in the west, for it connects Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa) to us. It is also the body of water we crossed in our forced migration to this hemisphere and the body of water we cross to return to our Ancestral lands. The aerial view of the manu, man, the west - the lands of North, Central and South Amaruka (america) and the Caribbean are shown ‘right-side’up. Our Ancestral orientation describes the south as ‘up’, ‘front’ and the ‘north’ as ‘down’, ‘behind’. South and North Amaruka (america) and the Caribbean in this proper orientation align with the medutu (hieroglyphs) of the sickle and the eye, that which is seen and discerned. The landmass emerging from the waters of Bosom Opo and Epo Abenaa is the sacred region of Asaase Afua and Asaase Yaa (Earth Mother Deities) upon which we stand and upon whom we are dependent for our sustenance and strength in the west. Because the bodies of our Ancestresses and Ancestors are buried in this landmass and some of their bones line the bottom of Bosom Opo and Epo Abenaa, this region of Asaase Afua and Asaase Yaa and these waters are particularly sacred for us. They are natural, sacred shrines for the spirits of our direct-blood Ancestresses and Ancestors.
Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans-Black People) comprise a world-body. Within that world-body are collectives of various cells functioning together as organs. Odwiraman, the Purified Nation of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in the West, are a manifestation of such a collective. We have ‘died’ and ‘resurrected’ like the Obosom (Deity) Ausar, who after His purification and resurrection was designated Khaniti-Amentiu – The Chief, Head of those of the West. We have restored ourselves like the Obosom (Deity) Auset, who after Her expulsion from Kamit found Ausar, united with Him and facilitated His resurrection. She ultimately conceived and gave birth to the Obosom Heru who would restore order to the nation – purification through revolution-resolution. She was thus designated Urt Henut Ntorou, the Great One, Chieftainess of the Deities.

As Odwiramanu, people of Odwiram (Odwiramanfo in Akan), we recognize the value of our individual functions in Creation and their relationship in harmony with our collective function as Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in the West and further as a component of the Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) world-body community. Our experiential knowledge and grounding in our unique identity in the west is the foundation of our movement to restore ourselves and Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) as a whole.

Embrace your identity. Embody our movement.

AFAHYE (ah-fah'-sheh) means to celebrate a festival or establish and maintain a cultural, communal or ritual observance. ODWIRAMAN AFAHYE is the intersection of Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral Religion, Culture and Nationbuilding/Restoration.
We work to establish and perpetuate the values of Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African-Black) Nationism - the purification of Nationalism.

We, through Ancestrally-inherited wisdom and guidance, properly reestablish and restore our oman (nation) firmly grounded and rooted in our spiri-genetic identity – our transcarnational identity. Through ritual practice we embrace who we are individually as cells within the Great Divine Body of Amenet and Amen (Nyamewaa and Nyame, Mawu and Lisa, Komosu and Chukwu, Olokun and Olorun) – The Great Mother and Great Father Who comprise the Supreme Being. We learn through this process what our specific function in Creation is, how that function is a critical component of the function of our greater Ancestral Clans, how our Ancestral Clan function is a critical component of the function of our individual Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) ethnic group and how that ethnic-group function is a critical component of the function of the Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) World-Body/Community.

Just as every cell in the body must recognize its inherent function and thus its value and worth in relation to other cells, organs and systems, so must we recognize our inherent function as Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African-Black) individuals with a unique, Divine role, in relation to our families, our Ancestral Clans, other Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) ethnicities and the Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) collective.

As an oman (nation) of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in the western hemisphere, interfacing with this region of Asaase Afua, our Fertile Earth Mother, and blending blood circles during and after the Mmusuo Kese – Great Perversity/Enslavement era, we have a distinct character which gives nuance to our functioning individually and as a unique and sovereign collective of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in the world.

Secular nationalism rooted in white political dogma and social doctrines, inclusive of the various strains and iterations of socialism and white socialism in black-face, has never and will never lead us to this critical realization. Amorphous nationalism inclusive of a rudderless Pan-African nationalism without an anchor in our unique spiri-genetic identity, our transcarnational identity – our very purpose for living and functioning – has never and will never lead us to achieving our goals. Messianic nationalism rooted in the pseudo-religions and pseudo-spiritualities of the whites and their offspring and ‘blackened-up’ versions of these pseudo-religious and pseudo-spiritual perversions vested in a pseudo-prophetic leader or series of leaders has never and will never lead us to achieving our goals. Our acquired nationalism has been a pathetic imitation of the ‘nationalism’ of our absolute enemies – the whites and their offspring.
Amanne is a Twi term for things (ade) of the nation (oman). Amanne (oman-ade, amanne) is thus defined as customs, traditions, ways of the nation. It is rooted in the ancient term mant (ment, man-t, amen, men-ta or man ade) defined as nature, kind or manner and also that which is permanent, abiding, has staying power; regular, consecutive; monument.

The oman (manu), the nation, is a living, breathing entity with a Spirit governing all who are a component part. The nature or customs of the oman are abiding and have staying power because they are rooted in the unchangeable and unalterable Divine Order of Creation. They are thus monumental. When we embrace who we are individually as cells with unique functions to execute within the Great Divine Body of the Supreme Being, while functioning interdependently with one another – Afurakanii/Afuraitkaitnit (African~Black) people/cells only – we then adhere to the collective Spirit of the oman, nation, that governs us. This is Amanne (Mant) which we define as Nationism.

Nationism, properly expressed as Afurakanii/Afuraitkaitnit (African~Black) Nationism, is rooted in reality. It answers the question of why Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans), possessing every skill-set necessary to build, sustain and defend an independent nation on our own territory, have not coordinated those skills and affected the desired result. Nationism breaks the impotence of secular, amorphous and messianic nationalisms. Nationism is born of our Divine function as Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in Creation and the unfolding of Creation through our spiritual, familial, social, economic and political life expressions. Nationism is the purification of Nationalism.

ODWIRAMAN AFAHYE is the recognition and reintegration of these principles, ritually and communally, operationalized via our principal values of Hye/Hyebea: Trustory, Religion, Judgement, Maturity, Revolution-Resolution, Relationships, Sankofa-Protocol. It is through this sound reintegration that we effectively realize the seven principal values of Amansesew – Nationbuilding/Restoration:

• Methods of Food Production and Preservation
• Methods of Curing Disease
• Establishment of a Military Structure
• Institutionalization of Values (Establishing Training, Educational, Industrial, Cultural and Religious Institutions)
• Establishing Sound Systems of Governance and Jurisprudence
• Building of Homes on Acquired Land in our Own Territory
• Manufacturing of Clothing

Appendix

As we can see in the language of Kamit, the term man meaning to twist, to turn round is the same term manu for city, town, region. These two meanings for the same term can be found in the Twi language of the Akan unchanged.

As we can see in the Twi language, the term oman (man – the ‘o’ is a prefix used in the Akan language) means to turn, to go aside. This same term oman also means town, as well as state, nation and the body of inhabitants of a town, state or nation. Thus the Asante Nation is called Asanteman. The Akwamu Nation is called Akwamuman. The Bono Nation is called Bonoman. Asante, Akwamu and Bono are all sub-groups of the Akan ethnic group.

We also see that the ancient term Man (Manu) designating the West, the land of the setting Aten (Sun) has its cognate in Akan as amannone. This references a land or nation abroad. It can also reference a foreign country.

When we look at the Akan definition of oman meaning to turn, turn aside, turn in from the main journey, we see the connection between turning, twisting and a nation.
When one is traveling down a road or path for a significant distance they eventually come upon a settlement, town, city. They \textit{turn off of the main road or artery} thereby entering into the collective group – the \textit{town, nation, people}.

Our organs and glands are collectives of cells working together. When the blood moves through the main arteries (roads) it at some point \textit{turns off of the main road} and enters the cell-collective – the ‘\textit{town}; ‘\textit{nation}’ of entities working together. This is the nature of an \textit{oman} (Akan) or \textit{man} (Kamit) – a collective of people working together as a unified whole.

Here we have not only the cosmological foundation for the definitions of \textit{man} meaning \textit{to turn} and \textit{nation}, but we also have the proper vocalizations of the terms as they would have been spoken in Ancient Khaniit and Kamit. It is because of course we never stopped speaking the language after migrating from Khaniit and Kamit to West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa) thousands of years ago. Akan people as well as other Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) people across the continent speak languages that are directly derived of our parent Ancestral language which was spoken in ancient Khaniit and Kamit over 40,000 years ago according to our own Ancestresses and Ancestors (see Papyrus of Turin). We not only \textit{speak the same derived language}, but we also \textit{worship the exact same Abosom} (Deities – Goddesses and Gods) \textit{who govern the exact same aspects of Creation} and \textit{who have the exact same names} – today – as we did in Ancient Khaniit and Kamit.

We thus have the cosmological, linguistic, ritual and cultural foundation for \textbf{Odwiraman} – The Purified Nation of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans-Black People) in the West.

Odwirafó Kwese Ra Nehem Ptah Akhan of Aakhuamuman Amaruka Añifi Mu, the Akwamu Nation in North America, will give our keynote presentation this year examining:

ODWIRAMAN ANATO – The Pedigree of Revolutionary-Resolutionary Nationism.

Our trustory (true-story/true history) demonstrates that our expression of Nationism rooted in our spiri-genetic identity and Ancestrally-inherited culture and religion in the western hemisphere has been the only successful engine of independence, sovereignty and security in said sovereignty. Over the past few centuries in the western hemisphere, the sole aim of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans-Black People) has been to take our independence, establish ourselves in a sovereign territory, govern ourselves and defend our sovereignty militarily. Our trustory (true-story/true history) has been that of self-governance for hundreds of thousands of years up until the recent period. Since the recent Mmusuo Kese (Great Perversity/Enslavement era), our trustory in the western hemisphere can be viewed in two major divisions: physical enslavement and post physical enslavement. During the physical enslavement phase, it was our Ancestresses and Ancestors who maintained their Ancestral Religious practices who were empowered and guided to successfully wage war against the whites and their offspring, massacre them and establish independent sovereign nations in various locations in the Southern, Southeastern and Western united states, Central and South America and the Caribbean. Our waging war successfully against the whites and their offspring forced the end of enslavement and the acceptance by the whites and their offspring of emancipation and repatriation initiatives. In the post physical enslavement phase, the whites and their offspring have worked unceasingly to perpetuate social, economic, cultural and pseudo-religious/psychological enslavement. The various iterations of secular nationalism, messianic nationalism and amorphous nationalism embraced by Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans-Black People) over the past century have not been successful at overcoming the control of the whites and their offspring and thereby the reclamation of our sovereignty and security. It is because these expressions of nationalism are all rooted in the same flawed ideology forced upon us by the whites and their offspring as a means of control.
Amann, Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit Nationism, was the holistic approach which led to our reclaiming our freedom and independence during the physical enslavement phase and is the only approach which will lead to our completing our task in the post physical enslavement phase. It is an approach to Nationbuilding/Restoration rooted in our Ancestral Religious values. The ritual practices of Hoodoo (Akan), Juju (Yoruba), Voodoo (Ewe, Fon), Wanga (Ovambo), Gris Gris (Bambara), Ngengang (Fang), Gullah and Geechee (Gola and Kis) and more laid the cosmological foundation of Divine Order and thus the orderly unfolding of our efforts to reestablish our sovereignty.

Our approach to Amanne – Nationism is organized in alignment with this reality of Creation, thus a holistic set of seven principal laws/values and correspondent activities necessary for Amansesew – Nationbuilding/Restoration can be and have been drawn from this alignment.

Odwirafo Kwesi Ra Nehem Ptah Akhan is the author of 30 books, over 100 articles and over 340 broadcasts and founder of AKONGUASUA DAN – Institution of Learning, Healing, Training, Employment and Entrepreneurship: www.odwirafo.com/nhoma.html

Iya Adjua, Ph.D, Owner of Wehemy Mesu Productions/Cultural Rebirth Connections International will present on:

As we work to establish a comprehensive Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Educational System for all Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans~Black People) in Odwiraman, we must have contingency educational support systems in place to serve every individual wherever they are right now. Such support systems are inclusive of Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Homeschooling networks, Saturday day-schools, tutoring programs and more. Those of our youth who are still in the public school system must be inoculated from the indoctrination of the whites and their offspring so that they may emerge from these institutions with their spiritual and cultural consciousness intact.
Dr. Iya Adjua’s navigation within and around life’s challenges comes through as a survivor dedicated to transmitting strategies for maintaining and continuing Afrikan legacies. After earning the Master’s degree and during the pursuit of her PhD, she came upon the opportunity to participate as a founding educator of a unique charter high school in Philadelphia. While there, Iya Adjua served as an administrator [department head, instructional leader, social studies coordinator], cultural inclusion specialist and educator. Her co-creation of cultural competencies via academic achievements and character development were designed to develop a wholistic Afrikan child who is ready to continue Afrikan legacies.

Iya Adjua’s tenacity for maintaining a strong love for Afrikan people is continuous and guides many of her actions in life. Iya Adjua has authored various articles, three entries in “The Encyclopedia of Afrikan Religion” along with her dissertation that addressed Afrikan centered leadership in schools identifying as Afrikan centered. As a result of this research she has created ACCLAIM, which is an instrument for culturally centered leadership that addresses Afrikan knowledge, content, policy and procedure. She continues to serve as an Afrikan centered activist leader, educator and mentor where she shares knowledge of life skills with students, parents and Afrikan communities worldwide.

Dr. Iya Adjua moves daily towards the tasks in which Amen/Amenet have sent her here to complete. As such, Dr. Adjua is the founder of Wehemy Mesu Productions/Cultural Rebirth Connections, International, a business that provides a unique line of products and services related to connecting and empowering Afrikan families by using their own existence and life stories as a starting point towards making contributions to the continuation and sustainment of Afrikan legacies.

Dr. Iya Adjua actively shares via collaboration and community participation. She is in communication with Afrikan people around the world from Belize, Belgium, Botswana, Brazil, Burundi, Cameroon, Canada, Chicago, Columbia, Detroit, Germany, Ghana, Guadeloupe, Haiti, Ivory Coast, Jamaica, Martinique, Paris, Philadelphia, Portugal and Washington, DC. Dr. Iya Adjua, continuously mentors, collaborates and consults to problem solve and implement strategies towards reconstructing and cementing Afrikan families. Dr. Iya Adjua’s efforts manifests in the following; she was honored, to participate in the Middle Passage Ceremonies and Port Markers Project at Penns Landing (2011) which identifies the location where Afrikans were forced to disembark on the Delaware. She consistently serves as a researcher/consultant/presenter for Developing Excellence (2007-present) which provides healing though building academics and music. She is a researcher/consultant for The Million Woman March (2013-present) that remains stalwart in the gathering of two million Afrikan women in Philadelphia and steadily assists African women in surviving daily life obstacles.
She supports via research collaboration and grant writing efforts the Precious Jewels Prevention Program (2010-present) which assists young Afrikan women through their pregnancy via doula support, encouraging breast feeding and sister circles. Dr. Iya Adjua is an active participant in the Black Communities Action Committee (2015-present), a virtual Susu that microlends to Afrikan people. Her recent planning with The Urban Families Advocacy Council (2016) is a collaborative effort to reciprocate Afrikan tax dollars into programs beneficent for Afrikan families in Philadelphia.

Dr. Iya Adjua’s new book ACCLAIM addresses the necessity of culturally responsive schools for Afrikan youth and its impact on children and families in Afrikan urban communities. Her dedication to sharing information and knowledge on the Afrikan Ourstory is reflected by collectively planning and actualizing (in the near future) an independent school for Afrikan females, writing autonomous grants, blogging and social networking on issues related to Afrikan people, communities and occurrences. KHUNEM – The Famine Stela and the Divine Mandate to Support Our Own Institutions

The Famine Stela of the Ntoro (God) Khunem is an ancient text which addresses the necessity of literally funding and supporting our religious-educational institutions.

In the text, the Nsut (King) of Kamit (Egypt), Djoser, laments about the fact that Hapi (Nile) had not risen to its proper height in seven years. Because of this drought there was widespread famine, causing death and misery throughout Kamit. Djoser recognized that there must be a spiritual cause of this unprecedented drought. He therefore queried one of his Chiefs and directed him to examine the ancient texts to find out what Ntoro (Neter, Deity) governs the release of the Hapi river and the names of the Ntorou/Ntorotu (Neteru/Netertu, Abosom, Orisha, Vodou – Gods/Goddesses) of the shrines of the region.

The Chief returned with the answer, telling the Nsut Djoser that Khunem is the Ntoro who governs the release of the river. When Djoser learned of more details he eventually journeyed to the shrine of the Ntoro Khunem in Southern Kamit himself.

Upon entering the Het Ntoro (Ht Ntr – House/Temple of the Deity) and the shrine, Djoser invoked the Ntoro Khunem and the Spirit of Khunem came forward and spoke to Djoser.

Khunem informed Djoser of all of the precious metals and stones of the region, but that these precious metals and stones had not been mined and employed in the construction and repair of the shrines of the Ntorou/Ntorotu (Deities). Because the shrines had fallen into disrepair and thus lack of use, disorder manifested in the land and the people. This was the cause of the drought and famine.

Djoser committed to restoring the shrines and ritual practices of the Ntorou/Ntorotu of the region and Khunem committed to making the Hapi river flow once again and bring abundance to the land which is what occurred.
When we allow ourselves to fall out of ritual practice – when we cease directly invoking and evoking the Abosom and NananomNsamanfo (Ntorou/Ntorotu and Aakhu/Aakhutu, Orisha and Egungun, Vodou and Kwito) – the Deities and Ancestral Spirits of our direct blood-circles, then we fall out of aligning our thoughts, intentions and actions with Divine Order.

When we are not constantly and consistently engaging in thoughts, intentions and actions which are expressive of Divine Order, disorder manifests. We thus perpetuate disorder in our lives and negatively influence others with whom we come into contact. When this manifests on a large scale, an entire community suffers from the weight of spiritual discordance – spiritual drought and famine.

The decrees of the Nsut (King), the Per Aa (Pharaoh) Djoser to have the metals and precious stones mined and utilized to build, restore and sustain the shrines of the Deities was the response to the Divine mandate of Khunem. This is literally our inherited Divine mandate from Khunem to us to use our resources to build, restore and sustain our religious-educational institutions.

Metals and stones project unique configurations of energy and are thus categorized by the Ntorou/Ntorotu (Deities) who govern that expression of energy in Creation. When we utilize such metals and stones on shrines, on our person, etc. through ritual we can use those energetic potencies medicinally – to restore and to strengthen. Such metals and stones are thus media of exchange – ritually and in the mundane sense, monetarily.

The decisions we make determine the direction of our lives – whether we are going to be healthy or suffer and eventually die of preventable illnesses and/or addictions; whether we are going to establish and support our own businesses and employment for our people or suffer under white economic oppression perpetually; whether we are going to restore balance to our relationships with our spouses, children, community or perpetuate negative, self-destructive behavioral patterns which hurt current and future generations.

When we make decisions rooted in Divine Order this changes the direction of our lives in a positive manner. However, we must cultivate the capacity to consistently make such decisions through education and ritual practice.

Those Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African-Black) institutions that cultivate the learning, healing, training and employment of Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African-Black) people are what sustain our people. This is why our religious-educational institutions of Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral Religion, Culture and Nationbuilding/Restoration are vital.

This is also why pseudo-religious institutions (christian, islamc, judaic/hebraic, hindu, buddhist, pseudo-metaphysical, pseudo-new-age, etc.) are absolutely destructive to our people.

Most Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African-Black) institutions that we know of are not well-supported by the Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) community, notwithstanding the fact that people talk about ‘buying Black’, ‘ujaama – cooperative economics’, ‘supporting Black organizations’, etc. on a daily basis. At the end of the day and year after year it has proven to be largely talk. Yet at the same time 95-100% of their dollars support white supremacist institutions every hour of every day of the year.

How many memes do you see saying ‘I Bought From this Business’, ‘I Supported this Black Institution’, etc.?

Instead of thousands of memes making the declaration ‘Buy Black’, there should be thousands, literally thousands, of memes stating which Black business, organization or institution the person or people actually tangibly supported.

There is a disconnect between speech and action. We have been conditioned to preach since the preacher was created on the plantation to stir the emotions of the enslaved, get them to clap and nod their heads in agreement, yet, never get up to actually change their condition. This has been going on for over 100 years. It continues on social media platforms millions of times per day. We preach, nod, ‘clap’ (like, share) and then go support white supremacist institutions. Often we are in a white business while we are clicking ‘like’ or ‘share’ on a meme about supporting Black businesses. This is the disjointedness that must be examined. Our Ancestral wisdom provides this examination and also provides the solution.

Khunem is the Deity who ‘conjoins’. The term ‘khunem’ literally means ‘conjoin’ in the language of Kamit. Khunem is the Ram-Headed Divinity seated at the Divine potter’s wheel conjoining the Ka/Kait (Soul) with the body of the person in the womb. In the text Khunem facilitates the release of Hapi so that the river can join with, have union with, the dry land so that fertility, abundance will result.

Khunem has the capacity to reconnect that which has been disconnected, disjointed. This includes the disconnect between ritual practice and spiritual cultivation. It also includes the disconnect between speech and action. Invoking Khunem allows us to heal from hypocrisy – disconnection of speech from action.
The text of Khunem is one of those expressions of Ancestral wisdom which demonstrates the negative effects of not supporting our institutions – starvation, death (spiritually, communally, physically). It also gives the blueprint for restoring Divine Order.

Khunem is an Ntoro, an Obosom/Orisha/Vodou to be ritually invoked and communicated with – not just read about. He is Okukunwem in Akan. He is called Ajala in Yoruba.

FI - Black God of Fida (Friday)

One of the titles of the Obosom (Deity) Amen Men (Min) is Fi (also Fai) when he animates and possesses the planet Afi (venus). Each of the seven days of the Akan week are governed by a solar, lunar or planetary body animated by certain Abosom (Deities). Fida is the da (day) of Fi and Afi (venus). This is ‘friday’.

In Akan culture, males born on Fida (friday) are those whose Okra (aw-krah’ – Ka/Soul) is governed by Fi (Amen Men) and are thus called Kofi (Kwafi – kwa: subject/servant of Fi). The name is also reduplicated as Fiifi.

The Obosom Fi is typically shown with an erect phallus. He is called the ‘Great Bull of Heaven’ (Ka Pet in the language of Kamit) who is constantly inseminating the ‘Great Cow of Heaven’ which is Afia (Het Heru). The fusion of Fi and Afi (Min and Het Heru mispelled Hathor by europeans) facilitates the conception of all life which is naturally occurring in Creation. This not only references fertility with regard to the conception of the Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) human being, but also the fertility of the land (crops) and the fertility of animal life.

Fertility, abundance, growth, development and the vested power and authority of the Abosom and Nananom Nsamanfo (Deities and Spiritually Cultivated Ancestresses and Ancestors) to regulate Order in Creation are born of and manifest through the color Black. This is the original Black Substance of Space governed by the Male Obosom (Deity) Ka and Female Obosom (Deity) Kait.

Ka and Kait, the Spirits animating the primordial Black Substance which contains all things in Creation are now referenced as ‘dark energy’ and ‘dark matter’. This substance is contained within our bodies as melanin – active only within Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) as receptors of the energy of the Abosom.

The Great God Fi is thus manifest as the Great ‘Black God of Fida or Friday’ – He who animates the masculine aspect of the planet Fi (venus).

We can therefore see the corruption of ‘Black Friday’ as a time of inseminating the economy with the greatest flood of resources on this day after having consumed the produce from the cultivated fields and the meat of the domesticated animals the day before.
Every Fida (Friday) is ‘Black Friday’ for Abibirifo (Black People) who are culturally aware. It is a time to invoke Fi and Afi ritually.

It is a time to flood our own economy with resources necessary for Amansesew - Nationbuilding/Restoration and the defense of Abibiriman (Black Nation).

The Aakhuamu (Akwamu) people are a sub-group of the Akan (ah-kahn’) ethnic group who live primarily in the West Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (West African) countries of Ghana and Ivory Coast. There are over 20,000,000 Akan people in Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa). Yet, there are millions of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in the americas, the Caribbean and europe who are of direct Akan Ancestry as well—physically/genetically and spiritually.

Millions of Akan people were captured as prisoners of war in Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa) and were subsequently forced into enslavement in the western hemisphere. Once in the americas and the Caribbean, many of us freed ourselves from enslavement permanently by taking up arms, killing the white slavers, killing the family and staff of the white slavers and burning down the plantations. We would then migrate to certain areas and establish independent, sovereign nations. Many of these independent, sovereign nations lasted for generations up to and beyond the end of "legalized" slavery.

It was/is the indomitable Okra/Okraa (aw-krah'/aw-krah'-ah), soul, of the Akan that directed us to listen to the guidance of our Nananom Nsamanfo (Honorable Ancestresses and Ancestors) and the Abosom (Goddesses and Gods/Divine Spirit-Forces in Nature) for this guidance was/is the expression and impression of Nyamewaa-Nyame Nhyeeyee (Goddess-God/The Supreme Being's Order-Divine Order). We would then incorporate that guidance in the form of directives for action in order to free ourselves from enslavement, re-establish our sovereignty and maintain our sovereignty. This indomitable soul is carried by the Akan in the western hemisphere today who have found out (and those who will soon find out) who they are. It can never be extinguished.

Amenet (Nyamewaa) and Amen (Nyame) from the Temple of Apet Resit in ancient Kamit

Amenet-Amen (Nyamewaa-Nyame) function harmoniously Together as The Supreme Being (Goddess-God)

[See: Note on the Origin of the Name Nyame in Ancient Khanit and Kamit]

Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi mu recognizes the reality that only the re-embracing of our own Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral culture, which includes most critically our own Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral Religion, restores our normalcy as Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) people. This re-embracing is the conscious re-establishment of our identity, and it is the re-establishment of our identity which is the foundation of our sanity, our stability in Creation. Moreover, it is the basis of our capacity to execute complete social, economic, political and spiritual liberation from our absolute enemies—the whites and their offspring (all white europeans, white americans, white arabs, white indians, white asians, white hispanics, white latinos/latinas, white pseudo-"native" americans, etc.—without exception, living and deceased), their culture and their pseudo(false)-religions. Our Amammere (Culture) and Nanasom (Religion) comprise the foundation of Amanseew (Nationbuilding/Restoration).

The members of Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi mu are descendants, physically/genetically and spiritually, of 1) Akwamu-Akan Ancestresses and Ancestors who were 2) enslaved in North America or entered North America during the period of enslavement to locate, fight for and liberate their kin and other Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans). The major Aakhuamuman akyenabo (sacred animals; "totems") are gyata/gyata-bere, nanka, odenkyem and osansa (lion/lioness, puff adder, crocodile and hawk). Additionally, as Akan people, the re-embracing of our culture necessarily includes our most ancient Ancestral cultural expressions made manifest by our Ancestresses and Ancestors in their/our civilizations of ancient Keneset and Kamit (Nubia and Egypt).

The Abosom (Deities) Ra and Apedemak from the Temple of Apedemak in Khanit (Nubia)

The Akan term oman means nation. Akwamu-oman or Akwamuman thus means Akwamu Nation. We use the spelling Aakhuamuman which reflects the ancient spelling of the name in the medutu, the hieroglyphic writing created by our Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestresses and Ancestors tens of thousands of years ago in ancient Khanit and Kamit - the foundation of all written scripts in the world. It also reflects our unique identity and heritage as Aakhuamufo (Akwamufo), Akwamu people, who waged war to end enslavement in Amaruka (america) and will continue as we participate in ahofadi, liberation, for Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) as a collective. We have thus re-established our Ancient Authentic Ancestral Amannee (traditions) under the guidance of Nyamewaa-Nyame, through the agency of the Abosom and our Nananom Nsamanfo. It is our Aakhuamufo Nananom Nsamanfo, our direct-blood Akwamu Ancestresses and Ancestors, who have concretized our identity as a people and an oman (nation) and form the basis for Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu, for it was our Aakhuamufo Nananom Nsamanfo who guided us to liberation from enslavement and continue to guide our efforts today.

Our direct-blood Nananom Nsamanfo include those Aakhuamu who originated in ancient Khanit, also called Keneset (Ancient Nubia), at the beginning of human existence upon Asaase (Earth) as a component of the larger group of Akanfo (Akan people). This is the region of contemporary Sudan and South Sudan in the Eastern region of Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa). We eventually migrated around the world. Some Akanfo migrated north of Khanit and settled ancient Kamit (ancient Egypt), while others remained in Khanit. Over the millennia, Akanfo migrated to West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (West Africa) establishing the ancient civilization of Akana (Khanat - Ghana). Some Akanfo were also a component of the Kanem empire (pre-Bornu), the original/authentic Black Berber empire (Abibiri-fo) and the Kong empire (Kan) before ultimately migrating to and settling in the areas of contemporary Ghana (Akana) and Ivory Coast. Our Aakhuamufo Nananom Nsamanfo would eventually form Akwamuman (Akwamu Nation) as an empire over 300 years ago in the region of contemporary Ghana. During the wars which occurred between rival Akan aman (nations) including those who were at war with europeans, some of our Aakhuamufo Nananom Nsamanfo were captured as prisoners of war and dislocated to the western hemisphere during the Mmusuo Kese (Great perversity/enslavement).

Akanfo in general as well as Aakhuamufo (Akwamufo) in particular became known in the western hemisphere for organizing military operations, waging war against the white slavers and liberating ourselves and other Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) from enslavement. Our military operations included armed resistance: acquisition of firearms and other weaponry and also waging chemical and biological warfare against the white slavers: Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (African) men and women on plantations poisoning the food and water supply of the whites in order to kill them and open the way for our liberation from the plantations.

It was because of our relentless military operations that Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) as a collective - designated as ODWIRAMAN - forced the end of enslavement in the western hemisphere. Our Aakhuamufo Nananom Nsamanfo made significant contributions toward this accomplishment.

It is from these Aakhuamufo Nananom Nsamanfo - our direct-blood Ancestresses and Ancestors who guided us in every generation throughout Mmusuo Kese (Great Perversity/Enslavement era), fought for and achieved liberation and who remain with us and continue to guide us today - that we derive our authority to reestablish Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu as an independent sovereign nation.

As with our Aakhuamufo Nananom Nsamanfo of the past, Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu is at the forefront of the war for the total religious, cultural, social, economic, political liberation of the Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans~Black People) in america and worldwide.
The image is of Owia, the Sun, manifesting heightened atmospheric activity often referred to as "solar flares" or a "solar storm". It is a fitting image, for it is through such heightened activity of Owia that the solar fire not only nourishes but purifies by burning-out/disintegrating impurities.

Odwira, in the Twi language of the Akan means 'purification' and also 'a celebration of purification'. This term has its origins in the language of ancient Khanit and Kamit. Thus, the ancient term Twra or Dwra as written in the medutu (hieroglyphs) means 'purification' and also a 'celebration of purification.'

Odwirafo is an Ancestrally inherited and transmitted office existing only within Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi mu. It is defined fundamentally as the 'individual within Aakhuamuman who is responsible for facilitating UAB-ODWIRA.'

Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu was reconstituted from within the Asona Abusua (Asona Clan) of Odwirafo Kwesi Ra Nehem Ptah Akhan with abusuafo (clan members) and related mmusuakuw (various other Akan clans) through marriage in Chicago, Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana which stretches back over 300 years.

Membership within Aakhuamuman is determined by direct-blood kinship and confirmed through adebisa (divination) for those who have been separate from the original families by time and distance. Our practice of adebisa is rooted in our expression of AKANFO NANASOM - Ancient Authentic Akan Ancestral Religion.

In North America, Akan Ancestral Religion was and is maintained as HOODOO from the Akan term Ndu (oohn-dooh') meaning 'medicine' from 'roots, plant life' (rootwork) and also 'to become heavy with the spirit' through Conjure from the Akan term KANKYE (kahn'-cheh) meaning 'to utter incantations to call the Spirits of the Deities and Honored Ancestral Spirits down'.

As Aakhuamu (Akwamu) people, we maintained Hoodoo for 300 years in North America. Our unique forms of adebisa (divination) are reflective of the culture that was fossilized in our bones and blood when we left Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa) and arrived here in the west.

Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu, Akwamu Nation in North America, is not an organization that can be 'joined'. It is an ethnic group, comprised of specific Aakhuamu (Akwamu) blood-circles in North America. This reclamation of identity can be affected by all Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in North America be they Ancestrally Yoruba, Ewe, Igbo, Fon, Fang, Ovambo, Bassa, Bakongo, Bambara, etc.
Odwirafo Kwesi Ra Nehem Ptah Akhan is the sole spokesperson/representative of Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu. All inquiries regarding Aakhuamuman should be addressed to: aakhuamuman@odwirafo.com

While we are genetically and spiritually related to the Akwamu in Ghana and Ivory Coast, we are our own separate entity, separated by centuries, distance and a locative identity rooted in our unique interfacing with this region of Asaase Afua (Earth Mother) and the blending of Ancestral blood-circles in this region for over three centuries. We are not representatives of the Akwamu in Ghana and Ivory Coast although we recognize them and all Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans~Black People) ~ and only Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans~Black People) ~ as family. Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu, Akwamu Nation in North America, is naturally a component of ODWIRAMAN - Purified Nation - Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in the Western Hemisphere as a collective - those who are Ancestrally, spiri-genetically Yoruba, Ewe, Fon, Igbo, Bakongo, Fang, Bambara, Ovambo, etc. who were forced into North America and fought for liberation.

Akanfo (ah-kahn'-foh) in the Twi language of the Akan means Akan people. Akanfo originated in ancient Khanit, also called Keneset (Ancient Nubia), at the beginning of human existence upon Asaase (Earth). This is the region of contemporary Sudan and South Sudan in the Eastern region of Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa). We eventually migrated around the world. Some Akanfo migrated north of Khanit and settled ancient Kamit (ancient Egypt), while others remained in Khanit. Over the millennia, Akanfo migrated to West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (West Africa) establishing the ancient civilization of Akana (Khanat - Ghana). Some Akanfo were also a component of the Kanem empire (pre-Bornu), the original/authentic Black Berber empire (Abibiri-fo) and the Kong empire (Kan) before ultimately migrating to and settling in the areas of contemporary Ghana (Akana) and Ivory Coast. Akanfo presently comprise approximately 45.3 percent of the population of Ghana (11,000,000) and approximately 42.1 percent of the population of Ivory Coast (9,000,000). Collectively, there are over 20,000,000 Akanfo in West Afuraka/Afuraitkait, including smaller populations in Togo, Burkina Faso and other areas.

During the Mmusuo Kese (Great Perversity/Enslavement era) the Akan ethnic group, as today, comprised one of the largest ethnic groups in West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa). Many Akanfo were thus captured as prisoners of war, shipped to the Americas, the Caribbean and Europe and forced into enslavement over the course of three centuries. As a result, Akanfo represent one of the largest groups of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) living in the western hemisphere today. There are millions of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) of direct Akan descent - genetically and spiritually - extant within the populations of the Americas, the Caribbean and Europe who refer to themselves variously as African-americans, African-canadians, Afro-brazilians, Jamaicans, Afro-cubans, Afro-Caribbeans, Africans in Britain, Spain, Portugal, France, etc.

AAKHUAMU (AKWAMU)

The Twi language of the Akan is directly derived from our Ancestral language of Khanit and Kamit. In the language of ancient Khanit and Kamit, the Aukhmu Urd are the 'stars that never rest'. They continue their movements across the sky on a nightly basis. Conversely, the Aukhmu Sku are the 'stars that never set'. These are the circumpolar stars that appear in the same location nightly. The stars are also called Aakhu - the 'shining ones' - which is also a title for our Spiritually Cultivated Ancestresses and Ancestors in Kamit - the Aakhu/Aakhutu, the shining, illuminated, wise ones. This is the basis of the title Aakhu Akhmu Sku:

The Aakhu/Aakhutu are commonly called Nananom Nsamanfo in Akan. Aukhmu is also spelled Khmu:

In the abaakosem (trustyory) of the Akwamu (ah-kwah’-moo), a sub-group of the Akan of West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa), it is said that the origin of the name Akwamu is kon bu, meaning neck (kon) break (bu). The 'n' sound is nasal like the 'n' in the English word 'senior'. It is said that when the army and a section of the royal family of this group of Akanfo were migrating away from their homeland in Twifo Heman to reestablish their nation in a new location, they passed through the Fante area. Because of the large numbers of them passing through the area, the Fante (another Akan group) are said to have stated, “Nipua na wodoo so, wo wwe won a na wo kon abu” meaning “These people are so numerous, even looking at them breaks one's neck.” The people were thus called Akonbufo, Akommufo and thus Akwamufo. The ancient origin of this story references our Ancient Ancestresses and Ancestors from Khanit and Kamit, the Aakhu and Aakhutu, being identified with the Akhmu (Akhomu or Aakuamu) Urd, the stars that never rest - that group of stars that paraded across the sky without cease at a ‘neck-breaking’ cadence. The Akhmu Urd became the Akhumu-urd, Akhumu-ur, Akhumu-uu and Aakhuamu (ah-koo-ah’-moo) - Akwamu.

Our connection to the stars as Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) is a spiritual connection rooted in the relationship we have with the Abosom (Deities – Divine Spirit-Forces in Creation) Who animate and govern the celestial bodies. [This has absolutely nothing to do with the idiocy of ‘extraterrestrialism’. Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) do not come from other ‘star systems’, ‘galaxies’, ‘planets’, etc. We come from Asaase Afia (our Earth Mother).]

Note that in the Akan language the ‘kwa’ combination is often interchangeable with ‘ko’. For example, the name Kwabena, the soul-name (kradin) of a male born on Benada (tuesday) is also written and pronounced Kobena. Kwafi, the kradin of a male born on Fida (friday) is also pronounced Kofi. Kwadwo, the kradin of a male born on Dwooda (monday) is also Kodjo. Some Akan speakers therefore pronounce the name Akwamu as Akwam or Akom, interchanging the ‘kwa’ with ‘ko’ and also employing the common Akan linguistic device of dropping the ‘u’ from the pronunciation of words that end with ‘mu’. Moreover, there is no letter ‘o’ in the metutu (hieroglyphic writing). The letter combination ‘ua’ or ‘wa’ represents the ‘o’ sound in Kamit. Akwamu, Akomu, Akom are directly derived from the metutu with the variations: Akhmu, Akhm, Khmu and Khm.

We find in Kamit variations of khm and khmu as kham and khamu which mean neck, throat. The metut for the ‘a’ in these variations is typically pronounced ‘aw’:

Moreover, the term ‘wrd’ (urd) means to tire, to be weary, to grow weary, to die:

Kham

neck, throat

Khamu

neck, throat

Khamu

urd

immobility, cessation.
We can therefore see that the Khmu Urd, the stars that never rest, are the Khamu Urd – the neck (khamu) - wearying (urd), neck (khamu) - tiring (urd) stars. The constant movement of the stars that never rest cause your neck (khamu; khmu, akhmu) to ‘grow weary’, ‘grow tired’ and ‘break’ or ‘die’ (urd). The etymology given for name Akwamu today (akommu - neck breaking) reveals the cosmology encoded in our ancient language and informs our identity as Aakhuamu (Akhamu, Akhmu, Khmu ur, Khamu ur, Khamu u).

We also have the following variations:

Akhm
inert, without, not

Akhma
to smite, to seize violently

Akhm
to destroy, to beat to death

Akhm
to extinguish a fire, flame

those who extinguish

The Akan term kum means to kill, to bring an end to; to destroy, overthrow; bring to naught. An okum-fo is thus ‘one who kills’. This becomes an honorific title in Akan culture. Okum nnipa means ‘killer of persons’. This is a title of kings who are honored for their military prowess. It is also a title of the Creator – ‘He who holds life and death in His grip’. The Akwamu became the most powerful Akan empire of their time and were known for their military prowess and the size and expanse of their empire. To many of their vassal states their war machine was seen as unstoppable. In ancient Khanit and Kamit and Akan culture certain warrior-Kings were recognized for their military prowess and their ability to kill their enemies or ‘swallow them up’ – like a crocodile.

Kamit

Khm to overthrow, destroy, to attack

Khm to bring an end to, to cease, to bring to naught

Akan

Kum to overthrow, to destroy, to kill

Kum to bring an end to, to cease, to bring to naught
Here we have the connection between the Akwamu as a great military power, with an unstoppable (stars that never rest) war machine, led by an Okumfo, killer, who ‘swallows up’ his enemies. To ‘swallow up’ as a form of killing (kum) like the odenkyem (crocodile in Akan) is directly related to Khm or Kham (neck, throat), Khm or Khmu (to bring to naught), Khm (to kill, overthrow, destroy, beat to death), Akhmiu (those who extinguish), Akhma (to smite, seize violently). The ‘swallowing up’ of the victim by the odenkyem is the death of the victim. When the victim enters the neck, throat (khamu) the victim expires (urd). When the odenkyem bites or breaks (bu) the neck (kon), the victim dies.

We also see above that Akhm or Akhmt in Kamit is the bank of a river. Over 450 years ago, prior to our migration into the region of contemporary Ghana, the Akwamu were part of the Kumbu (Kumu) Kingdom in the Kong area (contemporary Ivory Coast region). At times we lived along the sacred river now called Komo, also written Komoe, Comoe, Como. Kumbu (Kumu, Komo), as a name of the Kingdom and the river, is etymologically rooted in the name Akwamu as manifest in contemporary Twi and Khmu, Akhm, Akhmut from Khanit and Kamit.

The Akan term oman means nation. Akwamu-oman or Akwamuman thus means Akwamu Nation. We use the spelling Aakhuamuman which reflects the ancient spelling of the name in the metutu, the hieroglyphic writing created by our Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestresses and Ancestors tens of thousands of years ago in ancient Khanit and Kamit - the foundation of all written scripts in the world. It also reflects our unique identity and heritage as Aakhuamufo (Akwamufo), Akwamu people, who waged war to end enslavement in Amaruka (america) and will continue as we participate in ahofadi, liberation, for Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (Africans) as a collective. We have thus re-established our Ancient Authentic Ancestral Amannee (traditions) under the guidance of Nyamewaa-Nyame, through the agency of the Abosom and our Nananom Nsamanfo.
As a name referencing our migrations from Khanit and Kamit, to West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa), to our forced migrations during the Mmusuo Kese to America, to our liberating ourselves from enslavement by waging war and migrating to free territories to re-establish our culture, Aahkuamufu have embodied the resilience and illumination of the stars that never rest. This is the cosmological foundation of the name Aakhuamu and Aakhumuman Amaruka Atifi Mu (Akwamu Nation in North America).

Ru Ures-Gwa Kwesi: Symbol of the twin-circulage of Khanit and Kumbu-Konyeabo. It is representative of the sunsum of Aakhumuman Amaruka Atifi Mu. This symbol was given to Odwirafo Kwesi Ra Nehem Ptah Akhan as the symbol for Aakhumuman Amaruka Atifi Mu by his Nananom Nsamano in 12998 (1997).

The term serit [sorit] in the language of ancient Kamit (Egypt) [soronua in Akan] describes the ‘fan’ used to fan the Nesut or Henut, the King or Queen. The term serit with a different determinative medut (hieroglyph) and connotation however can mean ‘sickness, nausea’ showing the exudation of vomit from the mouth.

This term is a fitting description of ‘Fan-Africanism’ – the devolution of Pan-Africanism.

The Fan-Africanist seeks accolades, praise (fanning) from a following, a fan(ning)-base. The Fan-Africanist is not concerned with the liberation and restoration of Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African~Black) people first and foremost. The Fan-Africanist is concerned first and foremost with the faux-aggrandizement of himself at the expense of the receptivity of his fans – rooted in his own sense of inadequacy. This is the serit – ‘fanning’ which manifests as serit – ‘sickness’ for the individual and ‘nausea’ for those who once followed the individual (and for those who are ‘serit’ – sick enough – to continue to follow the individual).

The Fan-Africanist manifests symptoms of ‘odam’ – the Akan term for behavioral/mental illness which is always rooted in spiritual discordance. In western parlance within the field of Behavioral Health/Psychology such an individual would be diagnosed with Histrionic Personality Disorder, Narcissistic Personality Disorder, Major Depressive Disorder or Bi-Polar Disorder.
The Fan-Africanist Starter-Kit typically consists of:

1. Memorize information regarding African heritage, culture, spirituality, history, revolution – including a great deal of misinformation

2. Preach and teach what prior authors, teachers and speakers have shared regarding these subjects, often paraphrasing or directly plagiarizing. Most importantly: parrot the misinformation of prior authors, teachers and speakers on these subjects – demonstrating a lack of actual original research and experience

3. Generate a fan-base via social media by appealing to the ignorance and emotionalism of the non-suspecting audience

4. Charge a nominal fee for speeches, workshops and consultations in different cities, misinforming the audience, consistently rooted in a lack of understanding of the subject and thus promoting a faulty analysis and unworkable solutions to Black issues

5. Appeal to the ignorance, desperation and misguided emotionalism of a certain class of Black women and have sex with multiple women in various cities based upon ‘fanning’ – while publicly referring to the Black Woman as ‘queen, goddess, god, first teacher, oracle’, etc.

6. Chastise your fan-base for not financially supporting your ‘work’ when the funds begin to decline as popularity wanes – although the ‘work’ consists of repeating the work of others with flawed analysis

7. Expose your own hypocrisy by having a meltdown on social media after facing increased scrutiny by your fan-base

8. Offer a non-apology apology after the order of white politicians who seek to get in front of a scandal while blaming others for your actions

9. Repeat steps 1-8 in the Fan-Africanist Starter-Kit

When cells become degraded they mutate, degenerate, attack other cells, disintegrate and become reconstituted in the proliferation of more degraded cells. This is the nature of the Fan-Africanist and Fan-Africanism.

Serious Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans-Black People) do not entertain Fan-Africanists. We recognize the reality that Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African-Black) people – when healthy – are cells within a larger organ (community). We have our individual functions as cells which are interdependent upon one another while also in service to the larger organ of which we are a component part (organelle). Knowing who we are as cells determines what our function is within the organ and the entire body.
Rooted in spiritual consciousness, we recognize that there are certain Abosom (Orisha, Vodou, Ntorou/Ntorotu – Deities/Spirit-Forces of Creation) who govern specific organs. The Abosom who govern our specific organ (community) affects the manner in which we align with one another as a group.

When we lack a firm grounding in our place in Creation, Fan-Africanism predictably manifests on a communal level through the blind defense of indefensible ideas and the agenda of the whites and their offspring – couched in Afrocentric or Nationalist jargon. This blind defense is rooted in deeply-seeded and deeply-seated insecurities which the communal Fan-Africanist feels the necessity to cloak. This emotional and mental instability is again rooted in spiritual discordance.

We must therefore be grounded in Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral Religion to function harmoniously as individuals and interrelated cells in the larger body. This includes our approaches to the nourishment (development) and immunity (defense, military) of our organ (nation). Our practice of Ancestral Religion is born of our spiri-genetic blood-circles.

AMANNE – Nationism in the true sense is inclusive of true Pan-Africanism (all related cells working together for the sustenance of the whole) while providing the missing link not found within secular Pan-Africanism – Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral Religion and its cosmological infrastructure.

Without said infrastructure, Fan-Africanism in its various forms flourishes. With the infrastructure in place, Fan-Africanism is exposed and rooted out. The serit – sickness gives way to the serit – the fanning or empowering of the sovereignty of the oman (nation/community).
